

Small, but powerful!

For almost two decades now, Winters & Hirsch has tailored its real estate services to meet the specific needs of clients. Over time we have developed professional full service for office, retail, light industrial and residential properties. Our highly motivated team of real estate advisors has in the past 20 years provided responsible and cooperative assistance to our national and international clients. This has made Winters & Hirsch one of the leading owner-run real estate agencies and valuation service providers in Berlin and Germany. We look forward to offering you our assistance!
